Congratulations to our 2018 GUH Certificate Graduates!

It's been an exciting year! We had 8 undergraduate students and 5 graduate students complete the Global Urban Humanities Certificate in its inaugural year. An additional 29 students are currently pursuing the certificate. Learn what our undergraduate and graduate students gained from pursuing the certificate.

notMoMA*: A Project Conceived by Stephanie Syjuco and Activated by Portland High School Students

May 11 - July 8, 2018

Portland Art Museum, Portland, OR map

GUH faculty member Stephanie Syjuco's notMOMA installation will be displayed at the Portland Art Museum as part of the We Construct. Marvels. Between. Monuments series organized by visiting artistic director Libby Werbel. Syjuco's work was activated by Portland high school students to reproduce artworks from MoMA's collection. The exhibition explores students' understandings of "high art" and invites them to access the works through their own DIY collective vision. More

Need to Fulfill a GUH Elective in Fall 2018?
