Recent News

The sights and sounds of Art, Politics & the City available now

Both photos and videos from GloUH's Fall 2015 Symposium, held October 23, have been posted online. Check them out now to see and hear scholars from across the U.S. and Mexico explore the interplay between creative practice, activism, space and urban life in Mexico City and China.

Many thanks to our volunteer photographers--Ryan Hoang, Quan Huynh, Tamara Kalo, Hien Nguyen, Shamsher Virk and Jeffrey Yung--and to ETS for documenting the event!

Albany Bulb project in Ground Up

<http://groundupjournal.org/albany-bulb>

GloUH Project Director Susan Moffat discusses the interdisciplinary work of UC Berkeley students in documenting the many political, cultural and physical layers of the Albany Bulb in Issue 04: Out West of Ground Up, the journal of the UC Berkeley Dept. of Landscape Architecture and Environmental Planning. Read it online here.

A Place of Her Own

CLOSING RECEPTION/COMMUNITY POTLUCK: Thursday,
December 10, 6:30-8:30PM
SOMArts, 934 Brannan St, San Francisco map

A Place of Her Own features more than 30 artworks and large-scale installations, each a courageous visual answer to the question, "If you had a place of your own, what would it be?" The visual arts exhibition amplifies the voices of 20 women artists with diverse cultural perspectives ranging in age from 24 to 89 years old.

A Place of Her Own Closing Reception is intended to be a community celebration, and an opportunity to meet the artists and curators. To participate in the potluck, RSVP at placepotluck.eventbrite.com.
